

Former Parish Councillor – Alan Brown

Monks Kirby Parish Council wishes to express sympathy to the family of former Parish Cllr Alan Brown who passed away on February 28th, 2022.

The Parish Council acknowledges the commitment and endeavour over 26 years of service which Alan gave freely to the Parish Council and also the community at large. Alan and Jacqui moved to Monks Kirby in 1964 being at the forefront of the newer building in the village and have played a great part in village life ever since. Alan helped to run the Youth Club for many years and also the annual Bonfire Night celebrations along with many other village happenings. Alan was elected to the Parish Council in 1970 and re-elected consistently until 1991 when he went to work in Belgium. On his return he also served on the Parish Council for a further four years 2004-8. Alan was Chairman from 1974-1991 and successfully steered the Council through many changes in that time. He worked tirelessly to ensure the best interests of the community were achieved and his local knowledge was much valued.
